MOMIX Takes Audiences Down the Rabbit Hole in Magical, Mesmerizing Alice on Saturday, April 30 at 8 p.m. at the Carpenter Center

Internationally Renowned Dancer-Illusionists Return With Reimagining of Classic Lewis Carroll Tale

LONG BEACH, California — Audience favorite MOMIX returns to the Carpenter Center on the campus of California State University, Long Beach, on Saturday, April 30 at 8 p.m. with Alice. Artistic Director Moses Pendleton's newest creation reimagines Lewis Carroll's "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland" in an evening filled with whimsical, dream-like imagery and jaw-dropping choreography.

Conjuring a world of shifting perspectives and astounding visuals as Alice shrinks and grows, the dancer-illusionists of MOMIX also reacquaint audiences with the White Rabbit, the Mad Hatter, and the Queen of Hearts in this surreal and highly inventive experience. MOMIX's performance at the Carpenter Center is the company's only Southern California stop on their current tour that's just arrived from Paris and resumes in Italy this summer.

About MOMIX

For over 40 years, MOMIX has been one of the most visually inventive movement troupes in the world, presenting surreal, emotionally rich, and elegant dance experiences from the imagination of MOMIX's Artistic Director and founder Moses Pendleton. Playful and surprising, this troupe of talented and trained dancers combines primal movement with advanced stagecraft, creating performances that are direct, compelling, and accessible—while bringing to life some of the most breathtaking and awe-inspiring stories ever conveyed through dance.
